

Hi, Joe, we have holiday in the next week. I want to plan a trip, but I do not where to start it. I have four courses this semester and I also need to some presentations, assignments, etc. I'm very busy lately and I do not know how to optimize my planning with in the short period time.

Yeah, this week I am also very busy. But do not worry about that, I find an app which includes all steps. From a to b, c to d, and e to g. All you need to do just check if each process is suitable and do payment. After download this App, you need finish a short of test about yourself helping this app to customized your trip. For example, what is your budget, which food you favorite, which travel mode you prefer.
